PRAYING FOR OUR COUNTRY

No matter which way you voted, the results of the national election earlier this month were surprising. Maybe more than ever before, we have a divided country. Protesters fill the streets. Several have predicted the downfall of our nation. How should a Christian react?

After the election, I heard someone speak these wise words: "Before each election, I don't know who is going to be in the oval office, but I know who is going to be on the throne." We know who rules all things. We know who elects people to positions of power. We know our God is in control. The same God who created us, the God who loves us so much that he redeemed us by the blood of his Son – our God reigns! Because we trust that, we have peace as God's people.

How can we help those who hurting? What can we do to be good citizens and good neighbors? The apostle Paul wrote these words to Timothy: "I urge, then, first of all, that requests, prayers, intercession and thanksgiving be made for everyone – for kings and those in authority, that we may live peaceful and quiet lives in all godliness and holiness." Pray for our leaders. Pray for the spread of the gospel. Pray for those who are fearful and struggling. Trust that God has each of us and the country in which we live in his care.
