Luther High School is excited to introduce Jeff Komay as its new varsity head football coach. Jeff has been an assistant in the program for 15 years. In that time, he has been the offensive coordinator, defensive coordinator and has also worked as special teams coordinator. He was also instrumental in the establishment of the Junior Knights, a youth program for students in the elementary schools associated with Luther High School.

Jeff is a 1983 graduate of Mauston High School. After high school, he continued his education and football playing career at Carthage College in Kenosha Wisconsin. Jeff has been an instructor at Western Technical College in the Physical Therapist Assistant Program for the past 25 years. Jeff and his wife Karen live in Onalaska and have 7 children and 5 grandchildren.
